

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The largest livery owner in Maine uses Kendall's Spavin cure with the best success.

Judge George N. Brown has instructed the grand jury at Catlettsburg to indict all persons who in any way made any effort to secure the release of Neal and Craft from the State troops. It will not weary a person to count the number of indictments they will return against members of the mob when their labors are concluded.

Bald Knob.

Mr. W. R. Clark's son, who was very ill, has recovered.

The Congressional election passed off very quietly. Only 85 votes were polled.

Joseph North has been three weeks gathering eight barrels of corn. He needs help.

Mr. Berry Witt, of Stoney Creek, visited friends in this neighborhood the first of the week.

Mr. D. P. Bentley's school is ornamented with a new broom, an old ax and a new handle.

The dance at Mr. Abe Rucker's passed off very pleasantly, and we are glad to say there was no disturbance of any kind—the first time this year.

Captain Peyton lost his quart of whisky last Monday. He will hardly survive the misfortune.

Bridgeport.

Keeling Gaines is the boss horse tamer. The election passed off quietly, only 52 votes polled.

Rev. R. Ryland, D. D., of Lexington, was in the village this week.

Mr. Alex. Julian and his son Tarleton, are on a trip to Texas.

Mr. R. Rogers, of Frankfort, paid a visit to relatives in this place last Sunday.

Mr. H. Clay Dunigan and wife, of Frankfort, were the guests of Mr. Jno. Jenkins, sr., last Sunday.

Regular services at the Bridgeport Christian Church to-morrow both morning and night. Eld. Terrell pastor.

Miss Leona Jett, who has been visiting friends in this section for two or three weeks past, has returned home.

Mrs. Ellen Keillog Barran, 32 years ago of this place, but now of Wisconsin, paid us a visit last week, the first since that time.

Married at the residence of Esquire J. W. Jackson, in this town, Nov. 9, 1882, Mr. William T. Wilson and Miss Annie Mayhall, Rev. J. W. Pugh officiating.

We were shown a stalk of corn last Wednesday grown on the farm of Raleigh Armstrong that measured 15 feet in length. Also an extra large year of corn that grew on said stalk. Who can beat it.

Roll of honor of Bridgeport school for week ending Nov. 10th, 1882: Charlie Russell, Lena Roberts, Emma Russell, Samella Crockett, Maggie Branch, Ernest Wilson, Willie Parrent, Mattie Lou Crockett, John Brown, Lucy Brown, Ruthie Roberts, Bernice Jenkins, Sallie Ruth Wilson, Willie Russell, Annie Dowden, Charlie Watts.

Benson.

Mrs. Jane Reddish, of Frankfort (South Side), visited her nephew, Mr. Joe Sheets, of this place last week.

Cannot some one get up a comet in the day time for the benefit of some in this neighborhood. They say it rises too early for them.

It is thought the matrimonial fever will soon break out in this place, as there are several that have strong symptoms of the disease now.

We have had a nice rain, and Capt. Fox and Polk Conway are happy. Fox can now run his boat and Polk his mill. Bring on your corn, boys.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Pattie and their son, Hugh, have been to Boone county visiting relatives. Their daughter, Mary, has been very sick during their absence.

The young men of this place have organized a spelling club. They meet every Wednesday night at the school-house. Mr. Laz. Hulet announcer. Turn out, ye spellists.

The Rev. Wm. Smith, like Paul of old, thinks it no disgrace to labor with his hands. He has the contract for making one hundred tobacco hog-heads, and is now at work on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Conway and two of their children, from Owen county, after visiting relatives in Frankfort, came out and spent a couple of days with Mr. Polk Conway's family. Mr. Johnson says rabbits and possums are ripe in their county. Ditto here.

And now the irrepressible mother-in-law is on hand again. This time she says she must have a beet killed or she will leave. Now, Joseph, kill that beet, even if the strong arm (Armstrong) should take one-half, and the other half be hid by a Sheet, there is a Hunter here, who if called upon, will find a share of it. Do not let her go around crying beet, beet, beet, when there is no beet. Let us have beet.

AMOUR.

Stoney Creek.

Black haws and rabbits are ripe

Never without news for the ROUNDABOUT. Apples are very scarce in this neighborhood.

Mr. James Buford left last week for Owen county to visit friends and relatives.

Bro. Coppage preached a very impressive sermon at Antioch Sunday week. Text Matthew, 6:33.

Rumor has it there will be a wedding in this neighborhood soon. We will congratulate them, if we get a chance.

Some of the people of this vicinity have been put to a great deal of trouble by some unknown party or parties, who would pass very well for horse thieves. Whoever they are, they took the privilege on Friday night, the 27th ult., of taking Mr. Wm. P. O'Nan's horse from his stable and riding or leading it away, which caused him a great deal of trouble and distress before he found it. It was gone for several days. On Saturday night, at the Old Fellows Hall, on Stoney Creek some one had the impudence to take Mr. Simon's horse and ride or lead it to Bailey's Mill, or near there, and turn it loose. He found it Sunday in a much worse condition. It would be a blessing to our country if these parties could be caught and made to suffer for their misconduct. If the law will not take hold of them a rope neatly applied to their necks by Dr. Lyneb might prove very efficacious in stopping their fun. I do not think it is anyone who belongs in this neighborhood, for I do not believe there is a person who lives in this vicinity who would be guilty of such conduct. All the horses that have been taken were from parties living on the pike, and are ridden in the direction of Bailey's Mill, and when they reach there are exchanged for others belonging to farmers in that neighborhood. I guess the rascals think they are very sharp, but it is a long lane that has no turn, and they may get into trouble yet.

TENOR.

Elmville.

Tobacco gets lower and lower.

Miss Eliza Sharp has been quite sick for several days.

Wheat is doing splendidly, with a very large acreage sown.

What tobacco there is in this part of the county is mostly of a good grade.

Elmville will have a wedding in high life shortly. Look out for cards.

What few hogs there is in this part of the county for sale are held at $10 per hundred.

Elmville is on a boom and goods are so cheap that it is almost impossible to supply the demand.

Mr. Frank Bridges sold his black saddle mare, on the 2d inst., to Dr. Lusby, Owen county, for $135 cash.

Mr. J. N. Bridges bought, on the 2d, of John Petty, of Sulphur Lick Branch, one milk cow at $35 cash.

Miss Sallie Sharp, of Scott, a charming Miss, spent several days last week with Miss Sallie Wigginton near this place.

That wedding, which has been talked of since 1848, was suddenly upset last week by the wrong fellow getting the ladies picture.

Mr. Wm. Watson, Sheriff of Owen county, bought one day last week of C. B. Barnes, of Scott, one hundred ewes at $3 per head.

Married.—At the bride's father's, in Owen county, on the 2d inst., Mr. James Baker and Miss Leona Lucas. May joy ever attend them.

Mrs. Jennie Sinclair, Mr. Harvie and Miss Mamie Sinclair spent last Thursday with the family of J. T. Reynolds in Minorsville, Scott county.

Misses Belle McCord and Bettie Wigginton and Joe Wigginton spent several days last week with friends in and near Stamping Ground, Scott county.

Mr. W. S. McCord and his beautiful daughter, Miss Azelia, spent several days last week in Cincinnati, where Mr. W. S. was buying his winter stock of goods.

Mr. James W. Bridges bought on the 30th of October one cow and calf from Mr. J. M. Parker for $40 cash, and on the 1st, of C. E. Bruner, of Scott, 33 head of sheep at $3 per head.

Mr. Larkin Pluckett, of Walnut Grove, Owen county, has filed suit against Martha Pluckett, his wife, in the Common Pleas Court at Frankfort for a divorce on the ground of abandonment.

This part of the county is for Mason Williams, sr., to represent our people in the next Legislature, and would be proud to learn of his candidacy for the same. Mr. Williams made the best sheriff we ever had.

We learn by a private dispatch that Prof. J. G. Hardy, of Windfall, Indiana, will visit friends and relatives in Kentucky this winter. He will meet a warm welcome at our village, where he has many tried and true friends.

Elmville will have a baby show, which will take place the 22d of this month. No baby to be shown that weighs less than 60 pounds. The prize will be $20 in gold. Prof. J. K. Corbourn and the Rev. John Barnes will act as judges.

Mr. Willis Wiley, one of our best and most trustworthy citizens, is very sick at his home 2 1/2 miles north-west of this place. Mr. W. has many friends and relatives who sympathize with him in his hour of affliction. We hope it may not be long until the Alwise may see fit to restore him in health to his family and friends.

FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10th, 1880. Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very highly. He had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give them a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles, who are now using it.

Very Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.
